FOR THE WEEK ENDING THURSDAY. October 31, 1867,

TURPENTINE .- During the week just ended the market has ruled steady for this article, and prices are without change. The quantity reaching market is unusually small for the season, and principally of small parcels, which are readily taken by both shippers and distillers. The receipts for the week are only 729 bbls., which sold as fol-

Provisions .- In the market for N. C. cured Bacon we have scarcely anything to report in the way of sales. Little or none has been received for a week or two past, and the market has become nearly bare. There is a brisk demand for retailing purposes, and high figures could be readily obtained. We quote at 19@ 20 cents for hog round, and 24@25 cents & th. for hams ;-an extra article would probably command a higher price. Western cured is also in light stock, owing to the limited receipts, and we have to report a moderate enquiry. We quote from store at prices ranging from 16 to 16 cents for shoulders, 18 to 19 cents for sides, and 22@24 cents & lb. for hams, as in quantity and quality. LARD. The Market is only moderately supplied, but is sufficient for present demand. We quote North Carolina at 17 @18 cents, and Northern at 141@17 cents # lb. as in quality. PORK. Northern is in light supply, but there is only a retail enquiry. See table for store quotations. SALT. The stock is fair, and we note a mode
